

National Poetry Month 2014

Student Poetry Reading

(including reception)

Tuesday, April 1 • 6:30pm • LA 205

Faculty Poetry Reading

Tuesday, April 8 • 6:30pm • LA 205

Ms. Tami Haaland and Dr. Bernie Quetchenbach will read from their published and unpublished works of poetry.

Both Events are Free and Open to the Public

Ms. Tami Haaland is a professor of English at Montana State University Billings. She is the author of two books of poetry, Breath in Every Room and When We Wake in the Night. Her work has appeared in many journals and anthologies and has been featured on the Writers' Almanac and American Life in Poetry. She was recently appointed Montana's Poet Laureate.

Dr. Bernie Quetchenbach is an associate professor of English at Montana State University Billings, teaching courses in American literature, environmental literature, creative writing, and composition. His most recent book is an illustrated collection of poetry, The Hermit's Place, published by Wild Leaf Press. Bernie's poems, essays, and articles have appeared in a variety of books, journals, and anthologies.

