Course	Credits	Grade	Semester	Equivalent
--------	---------	-------	----------	------------

Required Core

*LANG 294	Language, Culture, and Identity	3
LANG 499	International Studies Capstone Course	1
*A course in modern language (see below).		3-4

Language Requirement: Students are required to complete at least one course in a modern language as part of the core.

*Students in the UISFL East Asian Program must complete 2 years of language study in Chinese, Japanese, or Korean.

Required Focus:

OPTION A: STUDY ABROAD

After satisfying the core requirements, the student is encouraged to choose an area for overseas study through consultation with the Office of International Studies and the Academic Advisor. Credits earned while studying abroad will constitute the remaining courses for the fulfillment of the minor. Upon returning to campus or upon completion of the minor, the student will register for the capstone course LANG 499.

Option B: On Campus

In Option B, the student must first satisfy the core requirements (except the Capstone). Remaining courses will be selected so that they constitute a focus of interest such as Latin America, Asia, the Arts, or General Comparative. With the guidance of the advisor for International Studies, the student will then write a short essay which states the rationale for the choice of courses for the focus area. Upon completion of the focus area courses, the student will register for the capstone course LANG 499.

Courses in the focus area may come from the General Education Categories / Requirements:

Categories: III - Social Sciences and History
IV - Cultural Diversity
V - Arts and Humanities

Other courses may apply. Students must consult the advisor for inclusion of specific courses which are not in the above Categories. Courses must clearly demonstrate an international focus (e.g. ACTG 327 Inter Fin Acct & Reporting; BGEN 360 International Business; BMGT 494 Global Op & Supply Chain Mgm).
