

Department of Music

Adjunct Professor

Stephanie Stevens

Keyboard, Theory

B.A. Music
M.M. Organ and Church Music, Indiana
University

Stephanie Stevens, originally from Houston, TX, earned her master's degree in organ performance and church music from Indiana University. After a 30-year career in church music, she now teaches keyboard skills and music theory classes at Montana State University Billings, plays in the Billings Symphony Orchestra, maintains a piano studio of mostly K-12th grade students, participates in the Billings Music Teachers' Association, and accompanies musicians of all ages around the Billings area.