

Policy Number: 102.6

Policy: Internal Affairs

Effective Date: 08/01/2011

Revision Date: 02/01/2017

Approved by: Scott Forshee, Chief of Police

The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for addressing complaints of misconduct as well as commendations for exceptional conduct.

To maintain public trust and the integrity of the University Police Department, it is imperative that all Department employees be held to a high standard and conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times. To ensure these standards are upheld, all complaints against the agency or its employees shall be investigated. Department members are required to cooperate fully and courteously with any person making a complaint against the Department or one of its members. Any employee under investigation will be treated with dignity and respect and will be kept apprised of the status of the investigation. Investigations will be conducted with procedural safeguards to protect Department members against malicious or false allegations.
