

Request for Credit Overload
MSU Billings Office of Admissions and Records

Overload of credits: Students (undergraduate) must complete a request for credit overload form, and return the form to the office of Admissions and Records with the proper signature. Graduate students request a credit overload through the Office of Graduate Studies.

- Any student not on probation may register for up to 18 credits per semester.
- Students on probation are restricted to 16 credits per semester while on probation.
- Students who wish to register for a credit load in excess of 18 hours and have less than a 3.00 GPA must have approval of the department chairperson of the department in which they are enrolled.
- Students who have a grade point average of 3.00 may register for up to 20 credits per semester without consent from anyone.
- Students who have a 3.00 GPA and wish to register for a credit load in excess of 20 credits per semester must have the approval of the department chairperson of the department in which they are enrolled.

Important Note: The student is responsible for any additional tuition/fees associated with this request.
